

Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Boston

presents

Organizing & Preparing Manuscripts for Self-publishing - What to Include & How to Do It

Stephen Denker

Sunday, May 20, 2012, 1:30 to 4:30 pm

Coolidge Corner Branch Library, 31 Pleasant St., Brookline

Stephen Denker will present a workshop on how to self-publish a family history book, including suggestions on design and construction, aesthetic considerations, and the organization of subject matter. He will demonstrate ways to prepare, repair, and enhance documents and other research materials for publication and present specific examples to illustrate techniques and options.

Now formally retired, Stephen Denker is active doing technical and business writing. He and his wife Elayne have been collaboratively researching their genealogies for the past ten years and have published nearly eight hundred pages of family histories, organized into four hard-cover books. They will share their experience and techniques in this workshop.

Sign up early by email (Denker@jgsgb.org) and Stephen will send you copies of slides and other materials before the meeting.

The Coolidge Corner Branch Library is at 31 Pleasant St, Brookline, MA.

For detailed directions and maps, visit our web page at <http://BrooklineLibrary.jgsgb.org>.

Admission is free for members, $5 for non-members.

Refreshments will be served.

Upcoming programs:

Jun 10 1:30 pm at Temple Emanuel, Newton Centre, Linda Levi, Archives of the Joint Distribution Committee: A Resource for Genealogists; followed by Spotlight: Heidi Urich on HIAS Records
A brief Annual Meeting and Society elections will precede the presentations.

The 32d IAJGS International Conference on Jewish Genealogy is in Paris, France, this summer, 15–18 July 2012. You can find details and register at www.paris2012.eu.

☞ VOLUNTEERS WANTED ☞ JGSGB is the proud co-sponsor of the 33rd IAJGS International Conference on Jewish Genealogy, coming to Boston 4–9 August 2013.

We are now seeking volunteers to help with putting on the conference.

You can find more information and the volunteer form at www.jgsgb.org/conf2013.

The JGSGB is dedicated to helping people discover and research their Jewish family history. We offer monthly education programs and a comprehensive beginners' course, maintain an extensive collection of research materials, and publish the award-winning journal Mass-Pocha.

866-611-5698

info@jgsgb.org

www.jgsgb.org